INTRODUCTION

First step

As a new candidate, your first step is to familiarise yourself with the Assessment Platform. This is the environment in which you will keep all your training and experience records, CPD activity, selected competencies and diary entries.

This is also the place where your counsellor will sign off your competencies and support you through each stage of your assessment.

Follow this guide on how to use the Assessment Platform.

The candidate home allows you to see your progress at a quick glance and reach the key areas of your journey so far.

To navigate back to the candidate homepage at any point, you can click on the RICS logo at the top of the screen.

You must complete the progress tracker in conjunction with the criteria for the route you are following, which are set out in the candidate guide.

01 Profile, message and help

Click the dropdown arrow to edit your profile. Click the envelope to view messages from your counsellor or RICS; a red circle indicates the number of unread messages. Click the question mark to access help.

02 Navigation bar

Hover over the navigation bar; it will expand to show you all areas of the platform. Click the RICS logo to return to the homepage from any screen.

03 Candidate details

Your name, company, job title and pathway will show here.

04 Counsellor details

The name and contact details of your selected counsellor.

05 Progress overview

Displays the status of the key activities you need to complete to meet the minimum requirements for your assessment. The blocks also provide shortcut links to these areas of the platform.

DIARY

Diary

The diary interface shows a list of entries. At the top, there is a '+ New' button (callout 1). Below it, there are two entries for '21 June 2022'. The first entry has the title 'dfhadh' (callout 2). It shows 'Competency applied to: Asset identification and assessment', 'Level: 1', and 'Days spent: 2.5'. To the right of the entry are 'Remove' (callout 3) and 'Edit' (callout 4) buttons. The second entry has the title 'ahaeth' and shows the same competency, level, and days spent, with 'Remove' and 'Edit' buttons.

The 'Filter Notes' sidebar (callout 5) allows filtering diary entries. It includes dropdown menus for 'Month' (All), 'Year' (All), 'Competency' (All), and 'Level' (All). At the bottom, there are 'Reset' and 'Filter' buttons.

Diary — preview

This section is only for those candidates who are following APC structured training.

The diary allows you to record your activities during your structured training. It serves two purposes:

- To provide a reminder of your experience for each competency and level when preparing your summary of experience.
- To provide a count of the number of days recorded for each competency and level. The count appears on your submission for assessors.

01 New

Click to add a new diary entry.

02 Diary entry

Each diary entry will be displayed, showing you the date you entered it, the title, the commentary you have added and the competency the entry relates to.

03 Remove

Click to delete any of the details you have added.

04 Edit

Click to amend any of the details you have added.

05 Filter

Use the filter function to display your diary entries by month, year, competency and level. This function may be useful when you are reviewing your work with your line manager/supervisor and counsellor.

All your diary entries will be accessible from the relevant summary of experience page for each competency and level. This will allow you to review your entries when preparing your evidence for each competency.

Proposer and Seconders

When your progress tracker appears completed and all elements have turned green, you will then be able to move on to the next step. If applicable to you, the next task will be to complete the Proposer and Seconder options. If this is not visible to you, the next step is to complete the declaration.

01 Proposer and seconders

The requirements for your proposer and seconders are confirmed in the platform.

02 Look up

You can enter the RICS contact number or relevant email address to search for your proposer and seconder.

03 Confirm or Discard

Check you have identified the correct member, and either: 'Confirm' your selection - this will send the member an automated message with instructions, or 'Discard' your selection and search for another member.

Note: to avoid any delay to your application, we recommend you contact your proposers and seconders in advance to inform them to expect an email.

FINAL ASSESSMENT

1

Please answer the following questions:

- Have you been subject to any charge or conviction of a criminal offence which could result in a custodial sentence, unless it is now a spent conviction as provided in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 or the equivalent in your jurisdiction?
- Are you subject to any ongoing disciplinary investigation and/or pending disciplinary proceedings and/or have you been subject to any adverse findings made against you by another regulatory body within the last 3 years?
- Are you an undischarged bankrupt?
- Have you in the last three years been subject to any insolvency proceedings or other arrangement with creditors in respect of your debts (such as an Insolvency Voluntary Arrangement)?

If the answer to any of the questions above is yes, you must provide full details of the relevant matter to regulation@rics.org. Your application will not progress further until we have considered this information. This information will be treated confidentially.

If at any time RICS discovers that you have failed to disclose any of the above or that you have provided false information it will have the right to terminate your membership with immediate effect (with no further obligation to refund any subscription or other fees).

I understand and accept that I am accountable for the truth of this declaration.

Declaration

All candidates must agree to the professional declaration.

01 Declaration

You must agree to the professional declaration at this stage to confirm that you are still eligible to join RICS.

02 Questions

You must select 'yes' or 'no' to all four questions.

If you answer 'yes' to any of the questions, you will not be able to proceed with your assessment.

Please contact RICS Regulation with details as to why you have entered 'yes', and a member of staff will then contact you with further instructions.

03 Submit

Once all actions are green, an automated message is sent to your counsellor so they can approve you for final assessment and allow you to continue your application. This enables the final assessment banner so you can proceed.

Special Considerations

We operate a special considerations policy to ensure that our assessments are fair to all candidates.
Select and submit this section to request special consideration of any personal circumstances that may affect your performance at the assessment and/or that you wish the panel to be informed about. These can include, but are not limited to, disabilities (physical or mental) and other protected characteristics recognised in equality legislation.
Please upload a copy of your evidence which will support your special consideration, such as medical confirmation, assessment reports, confirmation letters. If English is not your first language and you wish the panel to be aware, you will need to submit a photo of the relevant page of your passport.
If you need further assistance and have any questions, please email specialconsiderations@rics.org and the RICS team will provide guidance on the next steps.

Final assessment – submission

The final stage of the application is to check your submission document.

01 Download submission

The platform will create a PDF document with all your submission information. Check the document to ensure your submission is accurate. To amend any information, go back to that area of the platform.

02 Accept final assessment

Click the slider to confirm you are ready to submit for assessment.

03 Assessment banner

Your homepage assessment banner will change to confirm you have completed submission. Your result will show shortly after the assessment.

1

Final Assessment

Many Congratulations, you have been successful in your assessment; you are now qualified as an RICS professional.
An award pack, which contains your diploma and details of your next steps, will be posted to you shortly.
Once again, many congratulations and good wishes for success in your career.

Final Assessment

Unfortunately you have been unsuccessful in your assessment. To support you coming forward again you will receive a feedback report shortly. Further details on the next steps will be sent to you. We are not able to provide details of this until your report has been prepared. We would appreciate your patience during this time. If you wish to appeal following receipt of your feedback report, you will have 21 days to lodge this with RICS. The form to enable you to do so is on our website: www.rics.org/assessmentappeals.

Step 1 – download your final assessment report. Please ensure you download your report and save this to your own computer.

2

Download your feedback report

Step 2 – once you are happy to proceed you may reset your application in order to address the issues noted in your report. Once reset you will be able to access and add/amend your work.

3

Reset your application

Final assessment – result

When you have completed your final assessment, you will be notified of your assessment result via the platform.

01 Pass

Confirmation that you have passed your assessment will appear in the platform

02 Feedback report

If you have been referred at final assessment, you will be able to download your feedback report, when available, via the platform.

03 Reset your application

Click to reset your application. You will then be able to begin working towards your reassessment.
